

El Camino College To Host Fashion Show

El Camino College, Crenshaw and Redondo Beach boulevards, will be host at a gala spring tea, May 11, from 2:30 until 5 p.m. The fashion show and tea invitations are extended to all the women of El Camino and their mothers and friends.

The delightful afternoon will be spent in seeing the latest selection of campus apparel, casual dresses, suits, coats, and summer sportswear. The clothes will be modeled by twelve women students of active sororities and social clubs of the college. Miss Margaret Scott will direct the show, which will begin promptly at 2:30 p.m.

Refreshments will be served

Halldale PTA Hosts 40 at Box Social

Forty parents and teachers attended the box social given Saturday by the Halldale PTA executive board for the teachers and husbands. The group gathered at the Higgins Brick Pit and joined in an evening of community singing, dancing and games.

H. T. Seeman auctioned the boxes. Prizes were awarded Mrs. William Roberts and Mrs. H. B. Russell for the prettiest boxes. Mrs. Helen Cattett, teacher, was awarded the prize for the most original box.

The Halldale PTA Mothersingers held a White Elephant party at the home of Mrs. Robert Lenton Tuesday afternoon. Dessert was served and the afternoon was spent playing bingo. A donation was taken. Proceeds were used toward purchase of music for the chorus.

Mrs. H. T. Seeman, president of the Halldale PTA has announced the executive board meeting set for 9:30 a.m. tomorrow at the Halldale school. All members are urged to attend.

Feted with Stork Shower

Mrs. Bob Kerling was honored Friday evening at a surprise stork shower at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. L. Bennett. Games were played and later Mrs. Kerling was seated before a table laden with many gaily-wrapped packages which she was instructed to open.

At a late hour a decorated cake inscribed with a stork and other decorations was cut and served with other refreshments. Invited were Mesdames C. Leonard, Long Beach; Emma Buchanan, Warden Swanson, Thalia French, Jessie King, M. Finch, all of Wilmington; Ann Olney, Keystone; Thelma Whitacre, Marie Ausley, Alice Bennett, Flo Whiters, Myrtle Kelly, Mildred Baker, Thelma Langdon, J. Frey, Zeema Whitacre, Torrance; Bob Goss, Lomita; Louise Bennett, Los Angeles and Mrs. Gertrude Martin.

Camp Fire Activities

Tanda Grum Camp Fire Girls recently enjoyed a party at Torrance Park. Prizes were awarded for an interesting party project.

A doughnut sale subsequently planned turned out successfully and the group was pleased with the sales. Proceeds will be used to buy pins and scarfs. Prizes were given to the girls making the most sales.

Lessons in ceramics qualified the girls to make gifts for Mother's Day.

and background music offered by Hamilton Maddaford's string ensemble. The spring social event will be given under the auspices of the Associated Women Students of El Camino College.

WISE HOME SETTING FOR LOVELY TEA

The lovely home of Mrs. Ralph Wise at 2223 W. 255th street, the well-arranged musical program, decorated tea-table and charming hostesses all confined to make the spring musicale last week one of the highlights of the year for members of the Women's Society of Christian Service of Wayside Chapel.

More than 85 members and their guests attended the tea which netted the society forty dollars for the parsonage fund. Two distinct musical programs were presented during the afternoon with Elaine Hathaway, 8-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Hathaway of 247th street, presenting piano solos during the first portion of the program in place of Mrs. Joy McCoy of Redondo Beach who was unable to attend. Elaine, a pupil of Helton Alice Trafter, has appeared several times on radio programs and was well received by an appreciative audience.

The tea table was covered with a beautiful linen cloth and decorated with an attractive spring floral centerpiece. Presiding at the silver urns were Mrs. Wayne Hannah and Mrs. Roger Sawyer. Assisting them were Mrs. Jerry Loy and Mrs. Richard Baumann. Mrs. Peter Schmidt, president of the Women's Society, greeted the guests as they arrived.

Weekend Trip Is Enjoyed by G. S. Troop

A recent week-end outing to Griffith Park Girls Camp was enjoyed by members of Girl Scout Troop 698, which is sponsored by Fern Avenue PTA.

The girls who enjoyed the trip are: Nancy Humphreys, Linda Thistle, Jofran Rubco, Patricia Bregar, Joy Jolly, Sylvia Miller, Norma Rowe, Maurine Bradford, Irene Heath, Judy Vanderpool, Virginia Montez, Betty Ann Kastrop, Arlene Kastrop, Shirley Kastrop, and Connie Walton. The leaders who accompanied the girls are Mrs. Robert Kastrop and W. E. Walton.

Among the various activities included were hiking, copper craft, crepe paper craft, lanyard making, outdoor cooking, archery and various games such as ping pong, basketball, volley ball and tether ball.

The camping trip experience will help the girls on their second class badge, according to Connie Walton, troop reporter.
